LOVE & LAYERS

Hello creatives and welcome to our February newsletter! A new month brings fresh inspiration, beautiful new releases, and plenty of creative opportunities to dive into. This month we're excited to share our February product releases, alongside ongoing favourites you'll want to keep on your radar — including our Book of Me, Mini Works of Art weekly prompts, and our colour-filled year-long journey, Spectrum Stories. Whether you're creating in small moments or carving out time for a bigger project, there's something here to spark your creativity. Settle in, explore what's new, and let February inspire your next creative chapter.

MOODBOARDS & MINI WORKS OF ART

Thank you for creating with us in January and for filling the albums of Scrappingclearly Share & Inspire with so much arty goodness — they've become such a wonderful place to visit for inspiration, ideas, and creative encouragement. We love seeing what you're making and how you're interpreting the prompts in your own unique way.

As we move into February, our Mini Works of Art weekly challenge continues every Monday in the group, inviting you to create a small piece of art inspired by the prompt of the week — ATCs, index cards, or tiny creative moments made just for you.

February's Moodboard, Blush & Bloom, is now live and sets a beautifully romantic tone. With a vintage feel inspired by delicate laces and dried roses, this month's colour palette features blush, dusty rose, maroon, and antique gold — perfect for soft layering, thoughtful journaling, and expressive details.

WE CAN'T WAIT TO SEE WHERE THIS MONTH'S INSPIRATION TAKES YOU.
