THE COSY CREATIVITY ISSUE

Hello everyone,
Welcome to June at Scrappingclearly!
As the weather cools and the days become a little shorter, there's never been a better excuse to retreat to your creative space, pour a warm drink, and spend some time doing what you love most — creating.

Winter has always felt like a season for slowing down, gathering inspiration, and finally tackling those projects we've been dreaming about. Whether you're working on a scrapbook layout, mixed media journal, mini artwork, cards, or simply experimenting with new techniques, I hope this month's newsletter inspires you to carve out some creative time just for yourself.

Behind the scenes we've been busy unpacking, stocking shelves and filling the Scrappingclearly store with lots of gorgeous new arrivals. From exciting new products and creative essentials to beautiful Luckyfindings treasures, there is plenty of new inspiration waiting to be discovered.

If you haven't visited the shop recently, I encourage you to pop over and take a look at what's new — you never know what creative treasure might find its way into your next project!

Thank you, as always, for being part of our wonderful creative community. Your enthusiasm, support, shared projects and friendships are what make Scrappingclearly such a special place.

Stay warm, stay creative, and most importantly,keep telling your stories.
Happy creating

Kylie

THE SECRET BEHIND BEAUTIFUL LAYERS

SHOP NOW

Ever stare at a blank page and wonder where to start?

We've all been there. The photos are chosen, the supplies are scattered across the desk, the creative ideas are bubbling away... but that blank background can sometimes be the hardest part of the entire project.

That's where Paper Trove comes in.

Designed to take the guesswork out of building beautiful foundations, Paper Trove is a collection of versatile background papers perfect for scrapbook layouts, journals, mini artworks, tags and mixed media projects. Whether used as a full background, torn into layers, tucked behind photos or incorporated into pockets and interactive elements, these papers make it easy to create depth, interest and visual storytelling.

The carefully curated designs work beautifully with imagery, ephemera, fragments, stamps, stencils and mixed media products, making them a valuable addition to any creative toolkit.

If you're looking for an easy way to kickstart your creativity this winter, explore the Paper Trove collection and discover the perfect foundation for your next project.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT - NIKKI GIBSON

This month we're delighted to feature the work of Nikki Gibson from our Scrapping Clearly Share & Inspire community.

Nikki's creative journey began with what she describes as a scrapbooking addiction back in 1999. While she still enjoys scrapbooking, art journalling has become another creative passion. Collage is her go-to technique and in her own words, she's been known to "stick anything on a page that fits" — clothing tags, advertising leaflets and all sorts of found treasures often find their way into her work.

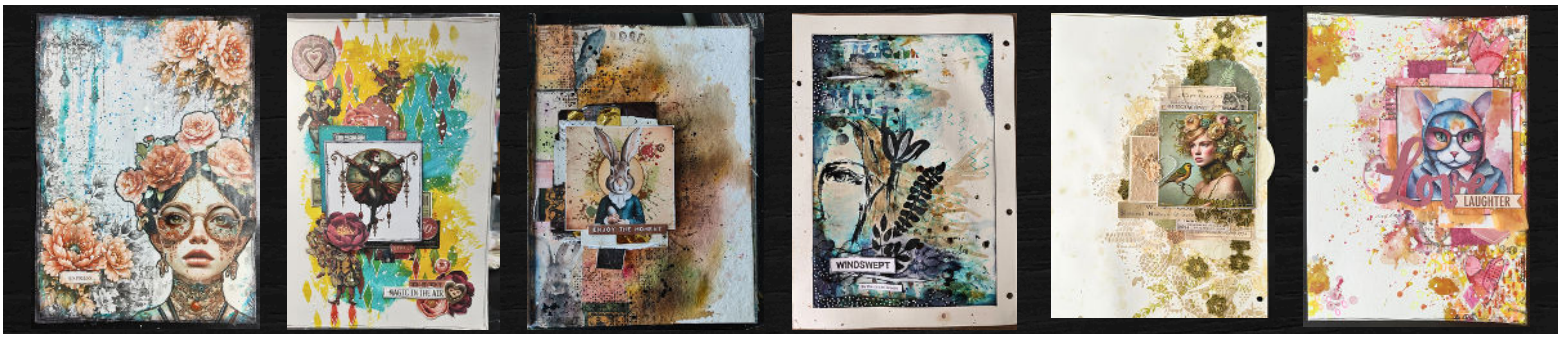

Nikki discovered Scrappingclearly a few years ago but admits she spent some time quietly admiring from the sidelines before feeling confident enough to share her creations with our wonderfully talented community. We're certainly glad she did.

Her favourite Luckyfindings products are the imagery sheets, and it's easy to see why. Nikki has pages and pages of artwork featuring these images as focal points, often choosing them because they resonate with a memory, a feeling, or a moment in time. Whether it's twigs woven through a girl's hair that remind her of life on the farm, or simply the colour of a dress that catches her eye, the imagery often becomes the starting point for the stories she tells through her art.

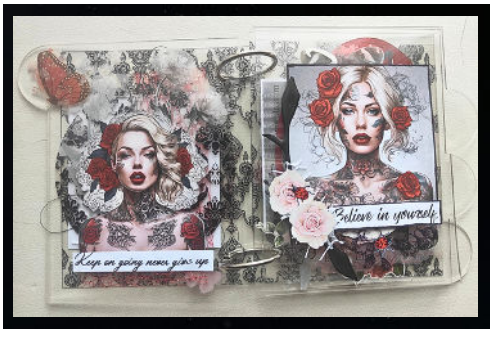

Nikki consistently showcases the Luckyfindings range in a thoughtful and cohesive way, creating richly layered mixed media compositions filled with texture, stencilling and carefully considered details. Her recent work beautifully demonstrates her love of storytelling through layers, imagery and mark-making.

The projects featured below are just a glimpse into Nikki's creative world. Click on any image to visit the original post in our Share & Inspire Facebook group and take a closer look at the layers, textures, and details within each piece. Be sure to scroll through the additional photos, particularly on her stunning Scrappingclearly acrylic album project. These featured works are only a small portion of what Nikki creates, with her Cybercrop entries regularly catching the eye and inspiring others throughout our creative community.

We're grateful to have Nikki as part of our creative community and look forward to seeing what she creates next.

NEW ADDITIONS TO OUR CIAO BELLA RANGE

We've recently expanded our ever-growing Ciao Bella collection, with a beautiful selection of new products now arriving in store — and there's even more still to come! Whether you love junk journals, mixed media, collage, art journalling or scrapbooking, these latest additions offer plenty of inspiration. Newly arrived are the gorgeous Afternoon Tea, Codex, Jungle Vibes and Yellow Stone Junk Journal Ephemera Books, packed with beautifully coordinated imagery and ready-to-use elements perfect for layering, focal points and creative storytelling.

We've also welcomed the Vintage and Music Sheet A5 Tissue Paper Sets, ideal for adding subtle texture, depth and vintage character to your projects.

Be sure to keep an eye on the website over the coming weeks, as there are still more Ciao Bella treasures waiting to be loaded. If you're a fan of beautifully curated imagery, vintage-inspired details and versatile collage elements, ou'll definitely want to take a look at these latest additions.

Endings, Beginnings & Shifts in the Studio

In the rhythm of any creative studio, things shift, evolve, and re-form — this month we acknowledge both an ending and a new beginning within our Curative Collective Design Team.

We extend our deepest thanks to Georgia Arthur as she steps away from the Curative Collective Team. Georgia has been a valued and much-loved part of the collective, sharing her creativity with generosity, warmth, and a distinctive artistic voice. Her work has inspired both the team and our wider community, and her presence will be sincerely missed.

We are truly grateful for all she has contributed, and wish her every happiness. We hope this is not a goodbye, but simply a pause in her presence here at Scrappingclearly — and that we'll continue to see her creativity woven through the community from time to time.

At the same time, we are delighted to welcome Elisa Ablett to the Curative Collective Design Team. Elisa is an established mixed media and scrapbooking artist with many years of creative practice and a well-recognised voice within the papercraft community. Her work is rich with texture, depth, and layered detail, and we are excited to have her join us as she brings her distinctive style into the collective.

Please join us in warmly welcoming Elisa as she steps into this new space within the collective.

We look forward to the next evolution of our creative studio as it continues to shift, grow, and inspire.

And the story continues, layer by layer
